

SHRI H. N. KUNZRU: Have any changes been made in the Bill in response to the criticisms of the Inter-University Board and other educational organisations?

SHRI K. D. MALAVIYA: That is precisely why this conference is being called to consider the whole question, to see if modifications or amendments are needed or not in the old Bill.

CO-OPERATIVE BANK, PUNJAB

357. SHRI B. V. KAKKILAYA: Will the Minister for FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether any sums are due to the Co-operative Bank, Punjab (India) from the Co-operative Bank, Punjab (Pakistan);

(b) if so, what is the amount due; and

(c) what steps Government have taken to recover the same?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER FOR FINANCE (SHRI A. C. GUHA): (a) Yes Sir.

(b) According to the tentative balance sheet prepared in August, 1948, by the Registrars of Co-operative Societies of the two Punjabs, a net sum of Rs. 226 lakhs was payable by the Punjab (P) to the Punjab (I), after adjusting Rs. 69 lakhs payable by the Punjab (I) to the Punjab (P). Until all the claims have been verified and a final balance sheet is prepared, the actual amount to be recovered cannot be determined.

(c) Government securities to the value of Rs. 1,45,65,500 have already been received from the Punjab Co-operative Bank, Lahore. The balance will be recovered only after all the claims have been verified and the correct amount, still due, is determined. The process of verification is in progress under the direction of the Registrars of Co-operative Societies of the two Punjabs. Every effort is being made so far as we are concerned to expedite the work.

SHRI P. SUNDARAYYA: Meanwhile how does this Bank carry on its business and meet the demands of the depositors?

SHRI A. C. GUHA: It is not the question of one Bank, but all the Co-operative Banks and as I said Rs. 81 lakhs are due from Pakistan. They must be carrying on with the balance left with them.

SHRI P. SUNDARAYYA: Does Government propose to give any help to the Cooperative Banks if in the interests of the depositors and for meeting their demands the Banks ask Government for such help?

SHRI A. C. GUHA: No such proposal is before Government as yet.

DISPOSAL OF VEHICLES

359. SHRI T. R. DEOGIRIKAR: Will the Minister for DEFENCE be pleased to state:

(a) the number of vehicles from war disposals which so far remain undisposed of at Dehu Road (Poona);

(b) how long it will take to dispose of the whole lot of these vehicles?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER FOR DEFENCE (SHRI SATISH CHANDRA): (a) 175 on the 1st of March 1953.

(b) About 2 months more.

SHRI T. R. DEOGIRIKAR: How long have these vehicles been lying, awaiting disposal?

SHRI SATISH CHANDRA: I said 175 await disposal.

SHRI T. R. DEOGIRIKAR: I asked how long, for what period have they been lying there awaiting disposal.

SHRI SATISH CHANDRA: Sir, the position is this. There were about
