

this subject. How can I give the hon. Member a gist of the talk?

(Interruption from several hon. Members.)

SHRI K. C. GEORGE: May I know whether the hon. Minister was there?

MR. CHAIRMAN: No; the hon. Minister has said that he was not there.

SHRI K. C. GEORGE: May I know from which source he got this information?

MR. CHAIRMAN: He means that when you were not there, how did you know that he talked on the Deployment of Divisional Artillery.

SHRI SATISH CHANDRA: There were 400 officers of the three Services and of the Ministry of Defence who attended the lecture.

SHRI K. C. GEORGE: Did the hon. Minister have a talk with these officers?

SHRI SATISH CHANDRA: I did not talk to anybody about it. As I said, I cannot understand the subject at all

(Interruption by hon. Members.)

SHRI H. P. SAKSENA: Was the lecture delivered in public or in camera?

SHRI SATISH CHANDRA: It was delivered in a cinema hall.

KHWAJA INAIT ULLAH: Has a man who is going from Korea to the United States to pass through Delhi? The hon. Minister said that he was going to the United States. Why did he come to Delhi? Was he obliged to pass through Delhi?

SHRI SATISH CHANDRA: He was coming from Korea and going to the United Kingdom and not the United States of America. India is the proper route for them to pass through.

KHWAJA INAIT ULLAH: Is Delhi the proper route, I mean.

SHRI M. MANJURAN: Who arranged for this meeting?

MR. CHAIRMAN: Officers.

SHRI M. MANJURAN: What was the purpose of the Defence Ministry arranging this meeting when the Minister himself does not understand the heading?

MR. CHAIRMAN: We are all proceeding on wrong grounds. It is an Officers' Club. I had the honour of addressing that Club once without attracting the notice of either the Defence Ministry or of any Member.

I was going on my way from here to Moscow. They asked me to speak. I spoke; no record; nothing at all.

SHRI B. C. GHOSE: The Defence Ministry organised this?

MR. CHAIRMAN: No.
