

MR. CHAIRMAN: He asks, what is meant by a substantial excess over a a lakh—is it ten, hundred, thousand or what?

SHRI M. C. SHAH: Something like a clear margin which is likely to remain—15 per cent, over one lakh— that was suggested by the sub-committee and it was accepted.

SHRI B. RATH: Is it a fact that the Central Pay Commission in 1947 had decided that cities having a population of 1 lakh will be granted this allowance and have circumstances changed so much and also the cost of living changed to justify this departure?

SHRI M. C. SHAH: The Central Pay Commission recommended that in the costlier areas and cities some sort of house-rent allowance should be granted to the employees at a prescribed scale appropriate to the salary. So this question does not arise here.

SHRI B. RATH: Is it a fact that in some of the cities in Class 'C' the population is about four to five thousand in excess of one lakh?

SHRI M. C. SHAH: Certainly. It may be so. We have stated that there can be an excess of 15 per cent, over and above 1 lakh. That percentage was considered to be necessary.

SHRI B. RATH: The excess is 5,000 I say.

MR. CHAIRMAN: The Question Hour is over.

SHRI B. RATH: Is it a fact that.....

MR. CHAIRMAN: No, the Question Hour is over.

SHRI B. RATH: A few more

MR. CHAIRMAN: No, no.

SHRI B. RATH: Sometimes the time is extended also.

MR. CHAIRMAN: It will not be extended.
