QUESTION "WHETHER PARLIAMENT" INCLUDES COUNCIL OF STATES

SHRI H. D. RAJAH (Madras) : Sir before you proceed further with the business of the House, I have to bring to your notice that when I entered Parliament House, I saw a room designated "Parliamentary Notice Office" and so I went in to find out what notices were displayed belonging to the Council of States. But to my utter surprise I found not a single notice of the Council of States being displayed there, but only notices of the House of the People. But, Sir, the Parliament of India consists both of the Council of States and the House of the People, and, therefore, any document that emanates from the House of the People should be styled as Parliament of India—House of the People, and any document that emanates from the Council of States should be styled as Parliament of India—Council of States. Otherwise, this is a serious infringement of the liberty and the freedom of our Council and I object to that kind of thing—the Parliamentary Notice Office displaying only the notices of the House of the People and none of the Council of States. Sir, we should preserve the dignity and prestige of this Council and as the guardian of this House, I request you to take up the matter with the Government and see that the Parliament of India consists really of the Council of States and the House of the People.

KHAWAJA INAIT ULLAH (Bihar). The Secretary of.....

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN : Order, order. There has been some confusion in regard to this question. This matter, I may inform the House, has already been brought to the notice of the Speaker and I am sure, by mutual understanding, we will come to some agreement about this. Members need not feel that there is any infringement of the rights of the Council of States.

SHRI K. B. LALL : May I make a suggestion in this regard ?

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN : Not necessary.

SHRI K. B. LALL : Only one thing, Sir.

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN : Order, order. Will the hon. Member please resume his seat ?
