

CITIZENSHIP

*286. SHRI J. R. KAPOOR : Will the Minister for HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state when Government propose to introduce legislation on matters relating to citizenship as contemplated in article 11 of the Constitution ?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER FOR HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI B. N. DATAR) : The matter is under active consideration and it is expected that the Bill would be introduced in the next session of Parliament.

SHRI J. R. KAPOOR : In view of the fact that children born of the citizens of India including of course the Ministers and many Members of Parliament after the 26th January 1950 are not yet citizens of India under the Constitution and since the detailed legislation on the subject of Citizenship Rights is likely to take considerable time before it is introduced here, do Government propose to introduce a small Bill conferring Citizenship Rights on such newly born children or at least issue an Ordinance during the intervening period ? Because the parents of the children are naturally anxious that their children should be citizens of India some immediate steps must be taken in the matter.

SHRI B. N. DATAR : I may assure the House that the matter is receiving the speedy attention of Government and all these difficulties mentioned by the hon. Member would be provided for by making that retrospective, if necessary.

SHRI C. G. K. REDDY : What are the principles on which this Citizenship Act would be based ?

SHRI B. N. DATAR : The principles have been laid down in Part II of the Constitution in article 11 and they deal with acquisition and termination of citizenship rights in various ways.

MR. CHAIRMAN : The question hour is over.

AN HON. MEMBER : There is still one minute more.
