MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN : I have to inform hon. Members that the following letter has been received from Shri Gopaldas Bulakidasji Mohta :

"My old revered mother who has been suffering since about a year on account of old age and infirmity, has now lost her consciousness and is in a delicate health, so much so that there is no guarantee as to what will happen to her at any moment. In the circumstances, I am required to attend on her day and night. Further being the son, I cannot leave her at this stage, as in an untoward event. I shall have to perform the obsequies.

I would, therefore, request that I may be either permitted to remain absent or granted leave for the complete period of session.
