

[Mr. Chairman.] right to speak on the Bill. Several hon. Members have already participated in the debate. And then the various clauses were put. We are now at the third reading stage. The hon. the Mover of the Bill has moved that the Bill be passed. An hon. Member can speak on the Bill at that stage also ; I am not denying the right to speak, technically speaking, but generally it is understood that the discussion takes place when the Bill is taken up for consideration. I am sorry the hon. Member was not here, when I called upon him to speak.

SHRI C. G. K. REDDY : I was here, Sir ; I was, in fact, getting up ; but the hon. the Minister was asked to speak.

MR. CHAIRMAN : AU the same, you had other opportunities to express your views on this matter*

The question is :

That the Bill, as passed by the House of the People, be passed.

The motion was adopted.

THE CALCUTTA PORT (AMENDMENT) BILL

bi! fcjsl: GOPALASWAMI : On behalf of my hon. friend and colleague Mr. Lal Bahadur Shastri, the Railway Minister, I beg to move :

That the Bill further to amend the Calcutta Port Act, 1890, as passed by the House of the People, be taken into consideration.

Sir, under this Calcutta Port Act, a body called the Commissioners of the Port of Calcutta was constituted and is in existence. On this body, two railway officers were ex officio members ; they were the General Managers of the East Indian Railway and the Bengal-Nagpur Railway. These two officers have now ceased to exist. This Bill proposes that the General Manager of the Eastern Railway and the Director of the Railway Board stationed at Calcutta for regulating rail movements between the Eastern Railway and the North-Eastern Railway, shall take the place of the General Managers of the East Indian and the Bengal-Nagpur Railways. There is nothing more to be said, Sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN : The question is :

That the Bill further to amend the Calcutta Port Act, 1890, as passed by the House of the People, be taken into consideration.

The motion was adopted.

MR. CHAIRMAN : The question is :

That, clause 2 stand part of the Bill.

The motion was adopted.

Clause 2 was added to the Bill.

Clause 1, the Title and the Enacting Formula were added to the Bill.

SHRI N. GOPALASWAMI : Sir, I move :

That the Bill, as passed by the House of the People, be passed.
