(e) A committee consisting of the Experts in the field of examinations has been constituted by the Board and asked to suggest the measures to stop recurrence of such instances and on the submission of measures by the Committee, Ministry of HRD would take the appropriate preventive measures accordingly. At present, following possible measures to ensure the safety and security of the question papers are being taken by the CBSE :

- (i) The question papers are packed in special kraft envelops then kept in cloth lined envelopes having the security seals and thereafter shrink wrapped prior to packing in cloth parcels. Finally these are packed in steel trunks with special seals.
- (ii) The steel trunks of question papers are stored in the Nationalized Banks.
- (iii) The question papers are handed over by the Bank to the authorized official only before the start of the examination.
- (iv) At Centre, question papers are opened in the Centre Superintendent's Office in the presence of four invigilators.
- (v) Observers are involved in all above activities for ensuring fairness in the conduct of examination.

Indian Universities under UN programme

1463. SHRI SHYAMAL CHAKRABORTY: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

- (a) whether United Nations has taken up an international programme under the name of Education Impact in 2010; and
- (b) if so, how many Indian Universities have been selected under this programme?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI D. PURANDESWARI): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. The United Nations Academic Impact (UNAI) was formally launched on 18 November, 2010. It is an initiative open to universities and other institutions of higher education and research worldwide which undertake activities in support of the mission and mandates of the United Nations. UNAI gives active support to 10 universally accepted principles in the areas of human rights, literacy, sustainability and conflict resolution, all of which were based on the United Nations Charter, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the Millennium Development Goals targets. The new initiative aims to promote a culture of intellectual cooperation, serving as a point of contact for ideas and proposals relevant to the United Nations mandate, and foster direct engagement by institutions in programmes, projects and initiatives for the realization of the Millennium Goals and other United Nations objectives. About 50 Indian institutions have joined UNAI so far.
