

STATEMENTSubsidy wells in Rayalaseema Districts*

(a) to (d) No proposal for construction of subsidised wells in Rayalaseema districts has so far been received from the Government of Andhra Pradesh in the Ministry of Food, Agriculture, Community Development and Cooperation.

2. An outlay of Rs. 300 lakhs has been approved by the Planning Commission in respect of 'Minor Irrigation' Programme of the Government of Andhra Pradesh for 1968-69.

3. According to the existing procedure of the release of central financial assistance in respect of State Plan schemes, the assistance is released annually towards the close of financial year under broad heads of development like 'Agricultural Production', 'Minor Irrigation' and not scheme-wise on the basis of figures of actual expenditure for the first three quarters and anticipated for the fourth, received from the State Finance Department.

4. With effect from 1-4-1967, the schemes under the 'Minor Irrigation' programme, are eligible for central assistance limited to 60% loan and 15% subsidy on the basis of actual expenditure subject to the overall outlay approved by the Government of India. The State Government, in turn, may allow any amount of subsidy for any scheme but the liability of the Government of India on subsidy would be limited to 15% of the actual expenditure according to the existing procedure. Necessary sanctions regarding central financial assistance for 1968-69 will be issued towards the close of the year as indicated in para 3.

HIGH COURT JUDGES ACTING AS TRIBUNALS

•627. SHRI P. C. MITRA: Will the Minister of LABOUR AND REHABILITATION be pleased to state :

(a) whether his attention has been drawn to the observation made by the Chief Justice of the Calcutta High Court before the newsmen in Calcutta to the effect that the existing rules relating to High Court Judges acting as Tribunal under the Industrial Disputes Act were such that they required modifications and further that the tribunals were under the control of the Ministry of Labour and it was not possible for him to allow this to operate in case of High Court Judges; and
