(c) if so, whether this course will be followed through Universities ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EDUCATION (SHRI BHAGWAT JHA AZAD) : (a) and (b) There is no job-oriented literacy programme for grown-ups as such. However, a programme of Kisan Saksharta Yojana (Farmers Education and Functional Literacy), as a part of the joint project of Farmers' Training in High Yielding Variety areas in which the Ministries of Food and Agriculture Information and Broadcasting and Education are collaborating, has been started with the object of improving the functional competence of the farmers. The programme was started in three States last year and is being extended to seven more States this year. It is too early to assess the popularity of the programme.

(c) The programme is being implemented in collaboration with the State Governments and voluntary organisations.

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM AND CIVIL AVIATION (DR. KARAN SINGH) : (a) to (f) Shri Naidu, a mechanic in the Indian Airlines, claimed to have devised a method for reconditioning and re-building "SAFT" batteries used on Caravelle aircraft. His claim was fully investigated but it was not considered safe to use such re-built batteries on aircraft. It is, in fact, contrary to the normal aeronautical practice to use re-built batteries on aircraft as battery failure can cause total power failure thereby endangering the safety of the aircraft. These re-built batteries were tried out for use on ground equipment but their performance was unsatisfactory. However, Shri Naidu was given two advance increment in appreciation of the initiative shown by him.
