Taxing of Agricultural Income

7. SHRI S. K. VAISHAMPAYEN: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state ;

(a) whether the Planning Commission has recommended in its recent Report to Government to impose tax on agricultural income and wealth with a view to raising resources for the 1976-77 Annual Plan; and

(b) if so, whether any steps have been taken by Government for the implementation of the recommendation ?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRIMATI SUSHILA ROHATGI) : (a) The reference in the question is perhaps to the Planning Commission's document on the Annual Plan 1976-77. This document was placed on the Table of the Rajya Sabha on 26th May, 1976. In Para 32 Chapter 111 of the document, the Planning Commission have suggested the urgent necessity for further measures to raise additional resources through agricultural taxation.

(b) Taxation of agricultural income falls within the jurisdiction of State Governments. Government of India have constantly been advising the State Governments to raise additional resources from the comparatively affluent sections of the agricultural sector through such measures as an agricultural holding tax as recommended by the Raj Committee, progressive surcharges on land revenue, betterment levy, cess "on" commercial crops, enhancement of water rates and tariff on agricultural loads etc. It may be added here that Raj Committee's recommendation regarding partial integration of agricultural incomes with non-agricultural incomes for determination of the rate of tax applicable to non-agricultural incomes has already been accepted by the Government of India and given effect to in 1973.
