THE MINISTER OF REVENUE AND BANKING (SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE) : (a) to (c) The information is given in the annexed statement. [See Appendix XCVII, Annexure No. 5]

(d) The short-fall in the appointments of S.C./S.T. at the end of 1975-76 is only in the grades of income-tax Officer, Class II (2 posts for SC), Inspector of Income-tax (1 post for ST), Supervisor Grade II (1 post for ST) and Upper Division Clerk (8 posts for SC & 1 post for ST). Since the unfilled reserved vacancies in the Gazetted grades are not to be carried forward according to the reservation orders, there is no back-log in the grade of Income-tax Officer, Class II. The post of Supervisor Grade II is a promotion post and the back-log in this grade will be wiped out as soon as eligible S.T. candidate is approved for promotion to this grade within the carry forward period. The short-fall in the grades of Inspector of Income-tax and U.D.C. falls in the direct recruitment quota. A competitive examination for recruitment to the grade of Inspector has already been held and the back-log of a solitary post reserved for ST in this grade will be wiped out if a suitable ST candidate is empanelled.
