

Setting up of Additional Service Selection Boards

*179. DR. K.P. RAMALINGAM: Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Government proposes to establish additional Service Selection Boards;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether it is also a fact that the army is planning intensive publicity campaigns targeting both urban and rural areas to attract youth to join armed forces; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SHRI A.K. ANTONY): (a) and (b) The Government have approved setting up of seven (07) additional Service Selection Boards (SSBs) viz. 2 for Army, 3 for Navy and 2 for Air Force.

(c) and (d) The Armed Forces have undertaken sustained image projection and publicity campaign to create awareness among the youth on the advantages of taking up a challenging and satisfying career, which is an ongoing process. Further, awareness campaigns, participation in career fairs and exhibitions, advertisements in print and electronic media, motivational lectures in schools, colleges are also some of the other measures in this direction.

Production capacity of cement plants

*180. SHRI BASAWARAJ PATIL: Will the Minister of COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) the details of cement plants working in India in both private and public sector and their annual production capacity;

(b) the number of cement plants which have been approved, but have not yet started production;

(c) the details of such plants, their owner companies and projected annual production capacity; and

(d) the number of cement plants which have been declared sick, public and private sector-wise details of such plants with their existing production level and other details?

THE MINISTER OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY (SHRI ANAND SHARMA): (a) to (c) According to the information available from the Cement Manufacturers' Association (CMA) and other companies, the details of cement plants working in India both private and public sector and their annual production capacity is given in Statement (See below). The Cement Industry has been decontrolled and de-licensed in 1991 under the Industrial (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951. After the announcement of the New Industrial Policy in 1991, the investment decision including project location for setting up a cement plants have been left to the commercial judgment of the entrepreneurs. The Department is, therefore, not involved in granting any licence or approval either for establishing or for functioning of cement plants. According to the Report of the Working Group on Cement Industry for the Twelfth Five Year Plan, the projected annual production capacity during 2012-13 is 349.60 million tonnes.

(d) The information is not maintained by this Department.

WRITTEN ANSWERS TO UNSTARRED QUESTIONS

Power to States to allow FDI in retail sector

1241. DR. KANWAR DEEP SINGH: Will the Minister of COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) whether as per recent policy decisions, State Governments have been given the power to decide whether they wish to allow FDI in retail in their States or not;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether Government has considered the possibility that subsequent Governments in a State may have differing views on this policy decision, which may create a situation wherein established investors may have to pull out in case of change in Government; and
