SHRI P.G. NARAYANAN (Tamil Nadu): Let me speak. Sir, Tamil Nadu had abnormal rainfall in three spells. Before Tamil Nadu could put up with previous two spells of torrential rains and floods, the State has now been struck with third spell of heaviest floods. The magnitude of the damage to the infrastructure and the agricultural standing crops and the loss of human lives due to the floods are highly extensive and unprecedented. I demand of the Government that a Central team should be sent immediately to assess the damage. Pending assessment of the damage, Central Government should provide Rs.3000 crores to Tamil Nadu urgently without any loss of time to undertake relief and rehabilitation work, as demanded by our hon. Chief Minister of Tamil Nadu.
