THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI A. NARENDRA): (a) Yes, Sir. Government is committed to promote adoption of clean and hygienic toilets in each village in the country.

(b) and (c) For the purpose, Government has launched Total Sanitation Campaign (TSC). TSC aims to ensure full sanitation coverage in all villages in the country with the help of State Government and local gram Panchayats. TSC projects are sanctioned district-wise, and the entire rural area of a TSC project district is covered under the programme. TSC projects are not sanctioned for individual villages. At present, this programme has been taken up in 520 districts in the country. So far under TSC, toilet facilities have been provided in 1.71 crore rural households, 1.72 lakh rural schools and 31,857 Anganwadis. In addition, 5407 community sanitary complexes have been constructed.

(d) There are two ranges of unit cost fixed for household toilets. The Government subsidy for household toilets is admissible if the basic cost of latrine unit is upto Rs. 1,000/- as follows:
