THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI MANIKRAO GAVIT): (a) National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB) compiles the annual crime statistics on the basis of reports received from State Governments/UT Administrations. NCRB has reported that crimes committed against Scheduled Castes are collected under ten different heads. Out of these heads, only "rape" is the specific head of atrocity committed against dalit women and the details of rape cases reported during the year 2002-2004 and upto June, 2005 are placed at Statements I and II respectively (See Below). Gender-wise information for crime against Scheduled Castes is not collected by NCRB.

(b) Under the 7th schedule to the Constitution of India, 'Police' and 'Public Order' are State subjects and as such, it is the responsibility of the State Governments to effectively implement the SCs & STs (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 and other legal provisions pertaining to safety and security of women and take deterrent action against the persons found guilty. However, The Union Government has from time to time been issuing advisories to all the State Governments and UT Administrations to strictly implement the above provisions.
