

(b) if so, the strategy of Government for its solution; and

(c) if not, the number of days Government takes to provide the amount of compensation to the family members of the martyrs ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI HARIBHAI PARTHIBHAI CHAUDHARY): (a) to (c) The State Governments have their own compensation policy for the families of civilians and the State Police personnel killed in Left Wing Extremism (LWE) violence. However, under the Security Related Expenditure (SRE) Scheme, the Central Government reimburses to the State Governments the ex-gratia payment of upto ₹1 lakh to the family of civilian killed and ₹3 lakh to the family of security personnel killed in LWE violence. Besides, the Government of India is administering a Scheme titled “Central Scheme for Assistance to Civilian Victims of Terrorist/ Communal/ Naxal Violence” under which the payment of assistance to the victims/ next of kin of victims are paid by the District Magistrate/ Deputy Commissioner concerned and thereafter the State Government submits the proposal to the Ministry of Home Affairs for reimbursement.

In the cases of death of the Central Armed Police Forces (CAPFs) personnel, papers for ex-gratia compensation are submitted to the Ministry of Home Affairs within a period of 5 months from the date of death of the CAPF personnel and there is an internal time schedule for processing cases at each level in the organization.

Missing children in Andhra Pradesh

1160. SHRI DEVENDER GOUD T.: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that more than one lakh children go missing in the country every year;

(b) whether it is also a fact that Andhra Pradesh is one of the affected States with regard to missing children;

(c) whether Ministry maintains any data on missing children;

(d) if so, the State-wise and year-wise details thereof since 2010 and the current year; and

(e) what special efforts Ministry is planning so as to reduce the number of missing children to acceptable level, particularly in Andhra Pradesh ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS

(SHRI HARIBHAI PARTHIBHAI CHAUDHARY) (a) to (d) As per data provided by the National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB), the State/UT-wise details of number of missing children, traced, untraced from 2010-2013 and 2014 (provisional) are given in the Statement (See below). The data of missing children regarding Andhra Pradesh is also provided in the Statement (See below).

(e) As per the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution of India 'Police' and 'Public Order' are State subjects and, as such, the primary responsibility of prevention, detection, registration, investigation and prosecution of crime, including cases pertaining to missing children lies with the State Governments/Union Territory Administrations. However, the Government of India is deeply concerned on the issue of missing children; and through various schemes and advisories to the State Governments/Union Territory Administrations, augments the efforts of the States/UTs.

The Ministry of Women and Child Development in consultation with the Ministry of Home Affairs has initiated a web portal named 'Track Child' in the country which is aimed at maintaining real time data of all missing children containing extensive identification details to facilitate matching of missing and recovered children.

In pursuance to the Hon'ble Supreme Court's order with respect to W.P. (Civil) no. 75 of 2012, Bachpan Bachao Andolan vs. UoI, the Ministry of Home Affairs has circulated an advisory to file mandatory FIR in case of missing children dated 25th June, 2013.

Apart from the above, the Ministry of Home Affairs has taken several other steps to trace missing children and curb the menace of human trafficking;

- Issued a detailed advisory on missing children and steps to be taken for tracing the children on 31st January, 2012. It includes various directions to States / UTs like computerization of records, involvement of NGOs and other organizations, community awareness programmes etc.
- A comprehensive pro-forma has been circulated to all the States/UTs to facilitate better data collection on missing and found children.
- The Ministry of Home Affairs has established a total number of 225 Anti-Human Trafficking Units (AHTUs) in various districts of the country.
- The Ministry of Home Affairs has also launched a portal on anti-human trafficking.
