

Boycott of courts by lawyers in Telangana over the issue of bifurcation of High Court

DR. K. KESHAVA RAO (Andhra Pradesh): Sir, this is a serious issue which I am raising. The State of Andhra Pradesh is already bifurcated; nine months are over. For good reasons, this House has passed that Bill. Many Members have been demanding a full-fledged discussion on the Andhra Pradesh Reorganisation Bill, which the House has not yet taken up. All right. What is the result? The fall out is simple. The High Court of Andhra Pradesh continues to be a combined High Court, with the cadre being bifurcated. Yesterday, the High Court has passed an order for holding examination for the Civil Judges' posts. We do not know where they will go. If the High Court does not say, then, this House must know because this House has passed this Bill. When we had raised this issue five days' back, all the lawyers, the entire Bar was on strike for the last many days. The courts are locked. The Chief Justice wants the police to act. The State Government may refuse to allow the police to go against their own lawyers. Sir, I am saying this because the non-bifurcation of the High Court, as mandated in the Bill, has brought in all such issues. Only yesterday, the examinations were held. Although I tried to raise it, I could not. Now, 81 judges will be there. We do not know where they will go. Perhaps they will come to Delhi; that is another matter.

SHRI JESUDASU SEELAM (Andhra Pradesh): There should be a Half-an-Hour Discussion on this issue.

DR. K. KESHAVA RAO: The Members have asked for a full-fledged discussion on this issue. My last request is this. Actually, the real reason for all this agitation has been the High Court, the law courts in Telangana. When the State was bifurcated, when we were forced to join Andhra the Mulki Rules were struck down by High Court. When it was struck down, we went to the Supreme Court, and we got it validated. That itself shows how partial it is. Today, the Andhra High Court, which continues as a combined High Court, is Andhra dominated. I am sorry; I am not meaning any discourtesy to others. Out of 29 judges, judges; those belonging to Telangana are only six; and out of 472 district judges, judges belonging to Telangana are 150. Our apprehensions and our fears are genuine in this. We want bifurcation because genuine problems come. And, today, you are holding another examination! Having another 81 judges added, where will they go? They will come and sit in Telangana as Andhra dominated people; this should not be allowed. I am bringing this to the notice of this House because it is in this House, it will be possible... ...(Interruptions)...
