Support is also provided for Central/ State Mental Health Authorities, Research and Training and Information, Education and Communication (IEC) activities.

Impact of sustained radiation exposure on asthmatics

973. SHRI T. RATHINAVEL:

SHRI A.K. SELVARAJ:

Will the Minister of HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that people working in a closed office environment where there are many computers are at risk of sustained radiation exposure, which can cause several ailments including asthma;

(b) if so, whether Government is considering to come out with any remedial measures to prevent asthma for the people working in such environment; and

(c) whether it is also a fact that there are more than 15-20 million asthmatics in India and that upto 15 per cent of children have asthma and if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRIMATI ANUPRIYA PATEL): (a) and (b) As informed by the National Institute of Tuberculosis and Respiratory Diseases (NITRD), Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, radiation emanating from computers causing several ailments is not substantiated. NITRD has further informed that there are no evidence based studies in this regard.

(c) As reported by Indian Council of Medical Research, the national burden of asthma in India is estimated at 17.23 million as per the study carried out.

As per WHO report, rough estimates indicate prevalence of asthma between 10% and 15% in 5 to 11 year old children in India.
