

(c) if so, by when it is going to emerge?

THE MINISTER OF TRIBAL AFFAIRS (SHRI P.R. KYNDIAH): (a) to (c) Implementation of developmental projects including construction of Dams often require compulsory acquisition of land. However, the Ministry of Rural Development has brought out a National Policy on Resettlement and Rehabilitation for Project Affected Families, which includes displaced tribals also. The policy provides for specific guidelines to stop scattering of Project Affected Families (PAFs); and further that the PAFs need to be settled preferably in group or groups and such sites should form a part of existing gram panchayat as far as possible. The policy also provides special package for the tribals enabling them to retain their ethnic, linguistic and cultural identity.
