RAJYA SABHA

(c) whether the retirement of Jaguar aircrafts from the Air Force is being considered, if not, the reasons therefor;

(d) whether any other sophisticated aircrafts are being purchased as a substitute of Jaguar aircrafts; and

(e) if so, the name of the aircraft and the country where from such aircrafts are being purchased?

THE MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE): (a) A total number of 38 Jaguar aircrafts were destroyed since induction. In these accidents 12 pilots were killed.

(b) No, Sir.

(c) No, Sir. Jaguars were inducted into Indian Air Force after stringent flight evaluations. The aircraft has a proven track record and is in front line service with many Air Forces of the world. Apart from minor snags, which are common to any military aircraft, there have been no persistent major problems with any of the main system of this aircraft which may warrant phasing out of the aircraft.

(d) No, Sir.

(e) Does not arise.
