

(d) if so, whether Government have initiated any move in this direction, and

(e) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI S. JAIPAL REDDY): (a) Since 1995, the International Children's Film Festival has been organized at Hyderabad in collaboration with the Government of Andhra Pradesh, once every two years.

(b) to (e) In the year 1997, Hyderabad was declared as the permanent venue for the International Children's Film Festival. The land handed over to Children's Film Society, India (CFSI) in 1997, for the Children's Film Complex had to be surrendered on account of non receipt of permission for 'change of land use' and opposition from heritage conservationists. Later, while the proposal of construction of the Complex was still under consideration (at different levels), the Expenditure Reforms Commission (ERC) recommended the winding up of CFSI itself. Under these circumstances, the large capital investment required for setting up a complete festival complex with offices and theatres for a festival held for a duration of seven days every two years was not found feasible. Based on this, the scheme was taken out from the Schemes for the Tenth Five Year Plan. However, a proposal to revive the project of construction of a complex at Hyderabad is again under serious consideration of the Ministry.
