Trafficking of young girls and children

4217. SHRI RAM KUMAR KASHYAP: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the trafficking of young girls and children is on the rise in the country;

(b) if so, the details thereof along with the number of such cases reported, cases solved/pending, accused arrested and the action taken against the guilty persons during each of the last three years and the current year, State-wise;

(c) whether the trafficked girls and children are forced into prostitution, begging and organ trade, etc.; and

(d) if so, the steps being taken to curb such incidents?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI HANSRAJ GANGARAM AHIR): (a) As per information provided by the National Crime Records Bureau, 3028, 3548 and 4911 girl victims (below 18 years) were trafficked in the country during 2014, 2015 and 2016 respectively, out of a total of 5985, 7148 and 9034 child victims (below 18 years).

(b) State/UT-wise details of total number of cases of trafficking (including young girls and children) reported, persons arrested, persons charge-sheeted and persons convicted in the years 2014, 2015 and 2016 are given in Statement-I to III (See below). Complete data for the year 2017 and current year is not available.

(c) From the victims rescued from Human Trafficking, it is ascertained that they were trafficked for prostitution and begging etc. 4980 victims of human trafficking were rescued from prostitution, 71 victims were rescued from begging and 2 were rescued from being victimized by organ trade in 2016.

(d) 'Police' and 'Public Order' are State subjects under the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution of India. The responsibility to maintain law and order and protection of citizens primarily rests with respective State Governments. However, the Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) has been supplementing the efforts of the States and UTs by providing them regular guidance through various advisories issued on human trafficking from time to time. MHA also advises the Ministry of Women and Child Development and the Ministry of Labour and Employment for rehabilitation of victims of trafficking, and to keep a watch on fraudulent placement agencies in States which dupe unscrupulous victims in the garb of providing employment. The Ministry of Railways has also been advised by MHA to alert GRP and other railway staff to keep a close vigil on any suspicious activity of women and children being transported through Railways for the purpose of trafficking.

The Ministry of Home Affairs has also provided financial assistance to States to set up Anti Human Trafficking Units and also provides guidance to Nodal Officers of Anti Human Trafficking Units in handling human trafficking cases.
