Suggestion to amend Evidence Act

1800. SHRI JIBON ROY: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) has suggested to Government to amend Section 114 (B) of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 for holding police officers responsible for the injuries sustained by persons in police custody; and

(b) if so, Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI CHENNAMANENIVIDYA SAGAR RAO): (a) and (b) The National Human Rights Commission in its Annual Report for 1997-98 has recommended insertion of section 114(B) in the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 to provide for a rebuttable presumption that injuries sustained by a person in police custody may be presumed to have been caused by a Police Officer. The subject matter falls under the Concurrent List of the Seventh Schedule of the Constitution of India. The State Governments and Union Territory Administration have been requested to furnish their comments/views on the proposed amendment.
