

Due to the intensified actions against terrorism by the security forces, the terrorists have resorted to abduction of policemen and their family members on some occasions in order to de-motivate the forces. State/UT-wise details of such cases are not centrally maintained.

Government has taken various measures, such as strengthening of security apparatus, strict enforcement of law against anti-national elements, intensified cordon and search operations to effectively deal with the challenges posed by the terrorist organisations.

Amendment/repeal of Articles 370 and 35A

1948. SHRI SANJAY SETH: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

- (a) whether it is a fact that Government is going to repeal Articles 370 and 35A;
- (b) if so, the reasons therefor;
- (c) whether repeal of these Articles in any way violate any United Nations regulation or any international obligation of the country; and
- (d) if so, how will the same be mitigated?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI G. KISHAN REDDY): (a) to (d) At present, Article 370 is contained as a temporary provision with respect to the State of Jammu and Kashmir in Part XXI (Temporary, Transitional and Special Provisions) of the Indian Constitution.

At present, Article 35A is contained in the Constitution (Application to Jammu and Kashmir) Order, 1954 which was added through the Constitution Order issued by the President of India under Article 370.

Jammu and Kashmir is an integral part of India. Matters relating to the Constitution of India are internal and entirely for the Indian Parliament to deal with. No foreign government or organisation has any locus standi in the matter.
