

Policy shift of ASI

179. SHRI SAMBHAJI CHHATRAPATI: Will the Minister of CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is any policy shift of ASI with regard to preference on development activities like construction of boundary walls, laying of modern pathways, illumination, ultra-modern washrooms, etc over conservation/ restoration/ archaeological investigations; and

(b) the details of works along with expenditure incurred other than conservation/ restoration/archaeological investigations carried out in the last three years at ASI protected monuments including the names of executing agencies in each case, circle-wise?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF CULTURE (SHRI PRAHALAD SINGH PATEL): (a) There is no such policy shift. The essential conservation work of protected monuments is attended regularly.

(b) The details of development works at Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) protected monuments along with expenditure incurred in the last three years, circle-wise, including name of executing agencies are given in Statement.

Statement
