ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE FOR TRIBAL AFFAIRS
(SMT. RENUKA SINGH SARUTA)

(a) to (b): Ministry of Tribal Affairs (MoTA) is implementing the Scheme 'Pradhan Mantri Janajatiya Vikas Mission' through TRIFED from 2021-22 wherein the component 'Institutional Support for Marketing and Development of Tribal Products/Produce' has been subsumed. Details of funds released by MoTA to States, based on their proposals, and TRIFED under this component during last two years are at Annexure. As informed by Tribal Cooperative Marketing Development Federation of India Limited (TRIFED), details of funds disbursed in the State of Tamil Nadu towards procurement of goods from tribal people during 2020-2021 & 2021-22 are as below:

| 2020-2021 | 2021-2022 |
|----------------|----------------|
| Rs. 57.48 Lakh | Rs. 45.96 Lakh |

(c): Details of products, both manmade and natural, from the scheme linked to other departments such as agriculture, horticulture, khadi and village industries, etc. for augmentation of training, skill upgradation and technological support under this scheme, as informed by TRIFED, are as under:

1. Khadi and Village Industries Commission (KVIC), Bangalore has been linked for selecting manmade and natural products which includes Honey, Black Pepper, Tea, Coffee, Soaps and Spices.
2. TRIFED is also making efforts to link the manmade and natural products through Khadi India (KVIC) and Khadi Board sales outlets in the State of Tamilnadu.
3. TRIFED has taken the expertise of Agriculture, Horticulture Department in imparting training to the VDVK beneficiaries in natural products.
