ANSWERED ON 21.03.2023

PROBLEMS FACED BY BENEFICIARIES UNDER PM KUSUM YOJANA

2377.SHRI ADITYA PRASAD

Will the Minister of NEW AND RENEWABLE ENERGY be pleased to state:

- (a) the details of beneficiaries under Pradhan Mantri Kisan Urja Suraksha Evam Utthan Mahabhiyan (PM KUSUM) Yojana across the country, State-wise;
- (b) whether some cases of cheating farmers in the name of PM KUSUM through various fake websites had come to the fore in various media, the manner in which it was curbed; and
- (c) the details of efforts made to monitor the application process under PM KUSUM Yojana and to make it smooth and transparent?

ANSWER

THE MINISTER OF NEW & RENEWABLE ENERGY AND POWER

(SHRI R.K. SINGH)

(a) State/ UT-wise details of the beneficiaries under the PM-KUSUM Scheme are given in Annexure.

(b) Ministry of New & Renewable Energy (MNRE) has received complaints regarding fake websites hosted in name of PM-KUSUM Scheme. Such instances have been reported to the law enforcement agencies for taking action against the culprits. Further, to make the potential beneficiaries aware, MNRE has issued multiple public notices, advising general public against depositing any fee or sharing personal information on such websites.

(c) Applications under the PM-KUSUM Scheme are invited by the State Implementing Agencies (SIAs). Under Component-A and Feeder Level Solarization under Component-C of the Scheme, call for expression of interest is issued by SIAs and projects are awarded through a competitive and transparent process.

For Component-B and Individual Pump Solarization under Component-C, applications are invited from the eligible farmers through transparent process including through online portals monitored by SIAs. Further, to ensure smooth implementation, MNRE also monitors implementation of the Scheme through regular meetings with States on weekly/ fortnightly basis.
