(c) amount of money allotted for protection of sick, old or stray cows by the Central Government and State Governments, year-wise for the last five years?

ANSWER

THE MINISTER FOR FISHERIES, ANIMAL HUSBANDRY AND DAIRYING
(SHRI PARSHOTTAM RUPALA)

(a) The Central Government does not own and operate any Gaushals and Gausadans. As per the information available in the Basic Animal Husbandry Statistics, the gaushalas which are under the State Government and others are as under:

(b) & (c) As per the Article 246(3) of Constitution of India, preservation, protection and improvement of stock and prevention of animal diseases; veterinary training and practice are under State list for which the States have exclusive powers to make laws.

As per Article 243(W) of Constitution of India, the local bodies are responsible for cattle pounds and pinjrapole. Therefore, the State may also endow panchayats to establish and run Cattle Pounds (Kanji Houses)/ Gaushala Shelters (community assets) to keep stray cattle. Many States have established Gaushalas and Shelter houses for stray cattle and provide for feeding of those animals.

In view of the above mentioned constitutional provisions, the State is empowered to take appropriate action on the expenditure of gaushalas from their own resources. Further, the Animal Welfare Board of India (AWBI) is providing funds under Regular Grants and Shelter Grants to the various animal welfare organizations recognized by the Board including the gaushalas. The information on the amount of money spent by the Central Government through the Animal Welfare Board of India to the Animal Welfare Organizations during the last five years is as under;

Sl. No.	Year	Amount (Rs)
1	2017-2018	3,55,53,054.00
2	2018-2019	5,43,33,927.00
3	2019-2020	4,30,00,000.00
4	2020-2021	3,34,03,981.00
5	2021-2022	3,99,00,000.00

As the information on the amount of money spent by the State Government is not maintained in by the Central Government, the information was sought from the State Governments. So far the following states have provided the information. The information from the rest of the states and Union Territories is still awaited. The information will be laid on the Table of the House after receiving the same from the State Government.
