MR. CHAIRMAN: You are making speech. I didn't allow them. ... (Interruptions) ... Jairamji, I am saying so... ... (Interruptions) ... Hon. Minister, when the Leader of the Opposition rose and wanted to digress, I intervened. The same applies to you. All I am saying is, I have declined your notices under Rule 267. And Number two, I am in some kind of pain because after my ruling, which is very categorical,... ... (Interruptions) ... I will not bear it. Please, take your seat. ... (Interruptions) ... You can raise it, I have said so, in Zero Hour; I have allowed it already. But, this will not happen. Please bear with me. Hon. Members, I am not able to persuade myself to accede to these Rule 267 notices. These notices are not in consonance with the ruling imparted by me. ... (Interruptions) ... The purpose... ... (Interruptions) ... No, no. ... (Interruptions) ... Now, Statement by Ministers, Shri Jitin Prasada. ... (Interruptions) ... Nothing will go on record. ... (Interruptions) ... Shri Jitin Prasada. ... (Interruptions) ... Please take your seat. ... (Interruptions) ... Mr. Parliamentary Affairs Minister, ask them to sit. ... (Interruptions) ... Ask them to sit. ... (Interruptions) ... Otherwise, I will have to name them. ... (Interruptions) ... I will name them. ... (Interruptions) ... Please ask them to sit. ... (Interruptions) ... If I find any Member of the House going against the rule, have it from me, I will name the Member or Members. ... (Interruptions) ... This House can't be run, if one party is in order, the other party is not; or, the other party is in order, this party is not. This will not happen. I want House to maintain calm and composure and act according to rules. If you feel about an issue, and I have already said, if I had declined their notices, it was not a ruling on its urgency, it was not a ruling on its importance. Your point, Mr. Kadadi, may be important. ... (Interruptions) ... Take your seat. No; your point may be important, you may be agitated. It may be significant. But, it is not worthy of Rule 267 as per ruling given by me.
