ANSWER

THE MINISTER OF STATE FOR AGRICULTURE AND FARMERS WELFARE

(SHRI BHAGIRATH CHOUDHARY)

- (a): The total number of Krishi Vigyan Kendras (KVKS) in the country are 731. The State/UT wise details is at Annexure-I.
- (b): At the time of establishment of a KV, a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU)/ Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) is signed between Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR) and the respective Host Organization. As per this Memorandum, the Council (first party) shall provide grant for the project on Krishi Vigyan Kendra according to the pattern of assistance approved under the Krishi Vigyan Kendra scheme subject to personnel and budgetary limitation imposed by the Government of India from time to time. The items of assistance may inter-alia include the following:

- (i) Salary assistance in respect of competent scientists and technical staff in different disciplines (Agricultural Extension, Agronomy, Plant Breeding, Livestock Production, Horticulture, Home Science, Agricultural Engineering, Fisheries, Agro-forestry, Soil Science and Plant Protection) based on the local needs and requirements for taking up various activities of the KVK as per mandate;
- (ii) Assistance for salary in respect of modest office staff necessary to support the scheme;
- (iii) The cost of approved recurring and non-recurring items based on the pattern of assistance applicable to KVKs as decided by the competent authority from time to time;
- (iv) The Council may also consider assistance as one time revolving fund refundable after five years for maintenance and running of farms, workshops, gardens, farm animals, birds, ponds etc. which will be strictly operated according to the rules and guidelines of revolving fund scheme of the Council;
- (v) For participation in and organisation of workshop, seminars, symposia and meetings approved in advance by the ICAR; and
- (vi) Expenses on publication of Progress Reports and other literature as approved by the Council.

(c): The technologies developed out of research conducted by ICAR Research Institutes and Agricultural Universities (AUs) are taken to farmers' fields by KVKs through different activities like On Farm Testing, Frontline Demonstrations, training programmes and extension activities. The scientists/Subject Matter Specialists of KVKs are also imparted training on the latest technologies in the AUs/ICAR Institutes.

(d): ICAR has created ICT based platform Kisan Sarathi for interface between farmers and the Scientists to provide a seamless, multimedia, multi-ways connectivity to the farmers with the latest agricultural technologies, knowledge base and the pool of large number the subject matter experts. Till date, 2.31 crores farmers are registered with Kisan Sarathi from more than 3.15 lakh villages from all across country. Apart from receiving more than two lakh calls from the farmers, about 5.36 crore advisories in the form of SMS have also been sent to the registered farmers by Scientists of KVK via Kisan Sarathi Platform.
