

Family courts

1594. SHRI THENNALA G.
BALAKRISHNA PILLAI:
SHRI NANDI YELLAIAH:

Will the Minister of LAW AND JUSTICE be pleased to state:

(a) the number of family courts set up by various States during the year 2002-2003;

(b) the number of cases settled by these courts during the years 1999-2002; year-wise;

(c) the recurring and non-recurring grants given by Government to various States for setting up family courts during the year 2002-2003;

(d) whether Government propose to set up more family courts in the country, particularly in Andhra Pradesh in view of the large pendency of cases; and

(e) if so, the details of the steps taken by Government to set up new family courts alongwith the numbers and locations thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LAW AND JUSTICE (SHRI P.C. THOMAS): (a) and (c) 36 Family Courts have been set up by various States during the year 2002-2003. An amount of Rs. 3.40 crore under non-recurring grant and Rs. 75 lakhs under recurring grant were released to the States as Statement-I. (See below)

(b) A Statement-II is enclosed.

(d) and (e) As per clause 3(1) of the Family Courts Act 1984, Family Courts may be set up by the State Government in consultation with the respective High Court in every area having a city or town whose population exceeds one million and in other areas as the State may deem necessary.

The Central Government is providing 50% of the estimated expenditure to the State Government for setting up of the Family Courts under Plan side @ Rs. 10 lakhs per court with an equal share from the States. Under Non-Plan side, funds @ Rs. 5 lakhs per court are provided towards running expenditure of the family courts.

The Parliamentary Committee on Empowerment of Women in its 5th and 12th Report on "Functioning of Family courts" has, inter-alia, recommended that steps should be taken to set up Family Courts in every district of the country. Accordingly, all the State Governments/U.T. Administrations have been addressed to set up at least one family court in each district.
