100 days employment to workers

†3043. SHRI RAJIV RANJAN SINGH 'LALAN': Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have assessed the number of workers who got employment for 100 days or less during the nineties in the country;

(b) if so, the number thereof;

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

(c) whether Government have suggested any effective proposals to provide more work than the 100 days to these workers during the Tenth Five Year Plan period; and

(d) if so, the details thereof and the assessment regarding the availability of additional man-days in each area?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI ASHOK PRADHAN): (a) and (b) As per the quinquennial sample surveys carried out by National Sample Survey Organisation during 1999-2000, estimated workforce in the country was of the order of 39.7 crore. Out of these, almost 3 crore were those who had worked less than 183 days during the reference year.

(c) and (d) The approach to Tenth Plan focuses on providing gainful high quality employment to the additions to the labour force and it is listed as one of the monitorable objectives for the Tenth Plan and beyond. The growth strategy of Tenth Plan would lay emphasis on rapid growth of those sectors which are likely to create high quality employment opportunities and deal with the policy constraints which discourage growth of employment. Particular attention would be paid to the policy environment influencing a wide range of economic activities which have a large employment potential.
