

Review of self employment programme

3310. SHRI ABHAY KANT PRASAD: Will the Minister of FINANCE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have reviewed the self-employment programme meant for the educated unemployed youths during the last two years;

(b) if so, the result thereof;

(c) the State-wise number of applications received under this scheme during the said period and the number of cases for which loans were sanctioned; and the number of cases where actual payment was made;

(d) whether any such cases are pending so far for sanctioning the loan;

(e) if so, the reasons for the delay;

(f) whether the banks have received any complaints in this matter; and

(g) if so, the action taken thereon?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS /SHRI ANANDRAO VITHOBA ADSUL): (a) and (b) Government of India and Reserve Bank of India have launched a subsidy linked scheme on 2.10.1993 viz Prime Minister's Rozgar Yojana (PMRY) for creating self employment opportunities for the educated unemployed youth including graduates by setting up of micro enterprise industries including service sector. The scheme is being implemented in both urban as well as rural areas of the country. Govt, and RBI constantly review, monitor and evaluate the progress under the PMRY scheme. The performance of the banks in regard to sanction and disbursement under the scheme is also critically reviewed in different fora such as District Level Review Committee (DLRC) and State Level Bankers Committee (SLBC) etc., where besides the representatives of RBI, implementing banks, representatives from concerned State Govt. Department participate in the discussion. In addition, the progress of implementation of the scheme is also reviewed by a monitoring cell under the Chairmanship of Deputy Governor, RBI. Banks have been instructed to arrange necessary training programmes for the branch level officials to sensitize them to the needs of this sector. Further, cut-off dates for lapsing of sanction/disbursement has been prescribed and banks have been advised to adhere to the quarterly schedule for sanction and disbursement of PMRY loans. This will ensure reduction the gap between sanction and disbursals under the scheme.

(c) the details of state-wise number of applications received, loans sanctioned and disbursed and applications pending under the PMRY scheme during the last two years i.e. 2000-01 & 2001 -02 (provisional) is indicated in the statement (See below).

(d) and (e) the major factors leading to delays in sanction/disbursement of loans are as follows:

- (i) Non-sponsoring of viable loan applications.
- (ii) Lack of necessary infrastructure and backward/forward linkage such as marketing of produced goods etc.
- (iii) Delay in submission of required documents and completion of prescribed formalities by borrowers.
- (iv) Delay in allotment of shed, power connection, water supply etc. and
- (v) Poor recovery position.

(f) and (g) Complaints have been received regarding various aspects of implementation of the scheme such as rejection, insistence on collateral securities, delay in sanction/disbursement etc. at Central Office as well as Regional offices of RBI. Complaints received at central office are being forwarded to Regional offices for further investigation. All complaints have been resolved/disposed off in terms of extant guidelines after obtaining comments from the concerned implementing banks. Since majority of the complaints pertain to insistence on collateral security by bank branches, delay in sanction/disbursement of loan proposals etc., RBI has reiterated the extant guidelines to all implementing banks from time to time for strict compliance.
