RAJYA SABHA

constable of CISF on 17.12.2002 while checking the entry ticket. CISF constable alleged that monument attendant had pocketed two tickets for resale and when he denied the charge, he was roughed up by the constable.

Immediately a three member enquiry committee comprising senior officers of Department of Culture and Archaeological Survey of India was constituted. Based on the findings of the committee Archaeological Survey of India staff involved in the incident were suspended. The supervisory official posted at Taj Mahal has been transferred. CISF has also suspended the constable who manhandled the Archaeological Survey of India staff. As per the directions of the Secretary, Home Affairs, CISF duties have been confined to the security of the monument. For stream lining the ticketing system more windows have been opened with additional staff.

as a result of an unanimous decision taken by a Conference of Chief Ministers held on 16th November 1999. This Resolution has been reiterated, in subsequent conferences of Chief Ministers, on 22nd June 2000, 5th July 2001 and 18th October 2002.

As per Entry 54 of List II (State List) of the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution, tax on sale or purchase of goods is a State subject. On the recommendations of the Chief Ministers' Conference held on 22nd June 2000, an Empowered Committee of State Finance Ministers was constituted to deliberate on matters relating to implementation of VAT by the States/UTs. Any decision regarding representations of trade and industry and the procedures to overcome shortcomings of State VAT, if any or rescheduling of VAT has to be taken by this Empowered Committee, which meets from time to time.

The Government of India is committed to respect the concept of fiscal federalism enshrined in our Constitution. Accordingly, the Union Government is acting only as a facilitator in this tax reforms process undertaken by the States unanimously.
